three begums revolves around the lives of three ordinary women hamida merryl and saliha who lived extraordinary interwoven lives of fabulous joy fierce pain and untold trauma like many who came before them they loved and dreamed although born in different times and places they were united through their dedication to bettering the lives of all around them each fell victim to disease and premature death without fulfilling their desires but like all desires these continue beyond their lifetimes flowing seamlessly between the biographical and autobiographical ziauddin sardar captures the complexities of everyday living human relationships and raw emotion weaving lives and ambitions together the great story of human societies unfolds through the eyes of an individual with each chapter struggling to fulfil the aspirations of the last sardar shows how his own life was shaped by these women and how their collective life undulated sea like to the rhythms of urdu poetry this genre defying book takes readers on a journey that is inimitably personal yet reverberates universally powerful and unforgettable three begums is a profound reminder that in a good life the only thing that matters is virtue particularly the virtue of compassion and working for something greater than oneself monograph commenting on islamic civil law and legislation relating to women in pakistan discusses the historical development of the legal system education of women vocational training woman workers rural women economic and social problems women s rights legal aspects of family life marriage polygamy divorce dowry inheritance etc misinterpretations of law and legal redress available and identifies areas for legal and social reform bibliography pp 178 to 186 glossary and references it is a political study of the controversy surrounding the issue of the uniform civil code vis à vis personal laws from a south asian perspective at the centre of the debate is whether there should be a centralized view of the legal system in a given society or a decentralized view both horizontally and vertically this issue is entangled within the threads of identity politics minority rights women s rights national integration global islamic politics and universal human rights champions of each category view it through their own prisms making the debate extremely complex especially in politically and socially plural south asia so this book attempts to harmonize the threads of the debate to provide a holistic political analysis with a discussion of islamic law in india practitioners and academics dealing with the middle east can turn to the yearbook of islamic and middle eastern law for an instant source of information on the developments over an entire year in the region the yearbook covers islamic and non islamic legal subjects including the laws themselves of some twenty arab and other islamic countries the publication s practical features include articles on current topics country surveys reflecting important new legislation and amendments to existing legislation per country the text of a selection of documents and important court cases a notes and news section and book reviews the basic objective of this book is to explore the possibilities of reform in muslim personal law and hindu personal law from women rights perspective it is a long complex discourse but the key factor in the whole discourse is gender the issue of uniform civil code ucc is being hugely politicized and communalized by communal forces in the name of religion but the endeavour here is to see the whole issue objectively through the lens of gender equality
