s essay the fourteen essays show how the questions frege discusses in that essay connect intimately with issues much debated in current philosophy of language and philosophy of mind the present study of sense and reference in the logic of frege represents the first fruits of several years of dealing with the work of this great german logician in the preparation of this work which was presented as a dissertation to the faculty of philosophy of the friedrich alexander university in erlangen nuremberg assistance came from many quarters lowe most to professor r zocher who directed this dissertation with understanding counsel and unflagging interest i must also thank professor p lorenzen whose courses and seminars provided more inspiration than might be immediately apparent in the book professor w britzelmayr of munich was so kind as to provide copies of important fragments of frege s works these texts are reproduced with the permission of professor h hermes director of the institut fur mathematische logik und grund lagenforschung in munster where frege s works and letters are being prepared for publication the preparation of this work was greatly facilitated by a two year grant from the fritz thyssen foundation christian thiel nuremberg february 1965 v translator s note in the difficult matter of fregean terminology we have taken ignacio angelelli s translation of two soviet studies on frege as the model both professor angelelli and dr thiel have been so kind as to read over the translation before publication in the philosophy of language the difference between sense and reference was a concept of the german philosopher and mathematician gottlob frege in 1892 this idea presented in this work reflects the two ways he thought a singular term might have meaning the volume throws light on various issues and problems in classical indian philosophical tradition concerning the structure of language and meaning particularly referring to the theories and philosophies of bhartrhari and nyaya and purva mimamsa philosophies of language it also involves the contemporary western perspective in the course of analysis first published in 2008 routledge is an imprint of taylor francis an informa company reading curriculum theory the development of a new hermeneutic is a study of curriculum theory texts of the 1980s focusing on three divisions within the theoretical traditions of the field the conservative the reconceptualist and the reproductionist the book provides a hermeneutic reading of specific texts within each tradition the book relies heavily upon the interpretation theory of paul ricoeur and discusses ricoeur's theoretical works the book reveals and demonstrates that the ultimate aim of interpretive reading or the hermeneutic process is enhanced self understanding
